

CHAIR OF GOVERNORS – SUE DURRANT

I am a Foundation Governor of All Saints' - Nominated by the Diocese of Lichfield. I have lived in Alrewas for over 30 years. All three of my children attended All Saints and went on to John Taylor High School.

Before my recent retirement I worked as the Director of a Birmingham-based Charity which provides care for children with multiple and profound disabilities and respite for their Carers.

Previously I was the Chairman of Burntwood, Lichfield and Tamworth Primary Care Trust and, before that I was a Principal Officer at Birmingham City Council, responsible for commissioning services for adults with learning disabilities.

I am also the Chairman of the Clara Martineau Charity which provides residential experiences for children who attend special schools in Birmingham.

I am currently a Governor of Birmingham Community NHS Trust.
