Contacting the School

The school has a new telephone number: 01283 247940. Calls will continue to be diverted for a short while if you call the old number.

'Walk the Wonders'

Congratulations to all the children who participated in 'Walk the Wonders' challenge. As a school we logged 10, 535, 996 steps which is more than enough to get the Great Wall of China!

The Summer Fayre

Thanks to all members of the PTFA and helpers who worked so hard to make the fayre such a great success. £1800 was raised altogether.

Whole School Dance

This will be performed on the school field next Thursday 20th July. Parents are welcome to come and watch. Please arrive in school from 1.20pm onwards for a 1.45pm start, enter the field via the infant gate.

Year 6 Shakespeare Performance

Well done to year 6 for their fabulous performance of Romeo and Juliet earlier this week. They delivered a top quality version of this Shakespeare play and worked closely together as a great team. There will be photographs on the school website next week.

Year 6 Leaver's Service

This will be held in church next Wednesday 19th July at 7pm.

Steel Drum Workshop

On Wednesday 28th June Panthers, Jaguars and Ocelots completed a Steel Drum Band workshop. The children had an enjoyable time listening to a performance, attempting to play the drums and also discussing the history and origins of the music.
