

The Revd. Prebendary John Allan

I am the Vicar of All Saints Parish Church Alrewas (serving the Benefice of Alrewas with Fradley and Wychnor churches since June 2001), which means I am an ex-officio Foundation Governor (representing the local parish church as well as the wider Diocese of Lichfield). I have been a Governor since 2001 and during this time I have also served as the Vice-Chair of the Governing Board, and am currently a member of the Personnel Committee.

My married daughter, Mrs. Jennifer Coghlan, is currently a part-time teacher in EYFS.

In addition to my involvement in our school and my three churches, I am also pleased to serve as:

- Co-opted Governor for St. Stephen's Primary School Fradley
- Trustee and Vice-Chair of the Alrewas and Fradley Charities
- Trustee of Action Udobo, supporting the Udobo School in Durban, South Africa
- Elected member of Lichfield Cathedral Council, representing the College of Canons
- Elected member of the Lichfield Diocesan Board of Education
